

I want the Wisconsin "No Call" law to continue as is. With that law I no longer have to dread each time the phone rings. I can actually pick it up without always screening the call. Nationally, the topic of state's rights has been an issue and I feel that this is a right of the people of Wisconsin to be protected from the intrusion of businesses in the privacy of our homes.